Ride Report:

Green Freeze 2010
Report By Jeff Harvey

GWTA Auburn began the first of the Green Freeze 2010 series on Saturday the 16th. The 3 part series, once per month Jan Feb and March is pretty well attended by a battery of all motorcycle types. From Harleys to scooters to trikes and side cars and of course the Gold Wings were out in force. By the time of our late arrival (about 8:45am), there were already 100 bikes bursting the parking lot seams and eager riders were lined up at the registration desk as well as the donut/coffee stand. The mornings cloud cover was laying about 16" off the pavement and the temperature was a brisk 36f. After chatting it up a bit, we (Joe and Sue Ennaro, Ric Pradel, and Ranks, and Yvonne and I) hit the roads and into the fog...Gorillas in the mist. Sue took the sheet as chief navigator with Joe at the lead and Ranks took the anchor. Our southern start took us to and through Algona towards Lake Tapps then north past Game Farm Park then NE skirting Covington, thru Maple Valley across May Valley Rd to Coal Creek, then up over Newcastle, back roads thru Renton Highlands, into Renton ending up at Billy Macs in Renton. We entered a full house but quickly were accommodated near the center of the peanut littered country cafe. We inhaled the freshly baked sweet buns with honeybutter while considering our fare...tater skins, burgers, fresh steamed veggies and sweet tater fries..iced tea and more honey buns please. We pulled our contest chip from the bag..recorded our points and headed for the door. No sooner than we arrived to our bikes, it started to sprinkle. Off to our prospective homes full and happy and a good-safe three hour ride on a sleepy Saturday morn. Looking forward to installment #2. Keep in mind that you can join in this event at the beginning of ride #1, #2 or #3. If you don't join till Feb or Mar, you still get to pull your 3 chips. A big thanks to Sue Ennaro for doing a great job of navigating this morning trip. As an added note, Bill O'Rourke was also at the sign in spot early this morning. He was riding but sans Connie who is still recovering from treatment. Please keep her in your thoughts...our goal is to get her out to Green Freeze #2 for sure.
