Ride Report:

Sunday January 31 – Of course it was raining but with expectations that it was going to clear off around noon. Speaking of the wet roads, I had turned onto the entrance ramp to 405 and hadn't quit straightened out the turn, when I gave a little more throttle. The rear end fishtailed a little more than I would like, ok time to slow down. I met Kenny and Kevin at Hinshaws in Auburn at 10 AM. We headed south on the West Valley and to a one way road up the hill to the west. We passed through Edgewood down through Fife and into Tacoma. Just outside Point Defiance Park we met up with Steve Tuggel. Nice ride through the park and across the Narrows Bridge. We then headed through Gig Harbor and up the inside passage, thru Maplewood, Olalla, Southworth, Colby, and stop at the Manchester boat launch. The weather was starting to clear and we decided to eat at a restaurant up the street from the boat launch. Then we headed north around North Point towards Port Orchard and then thru Fernwood, and down the back roads on the west side of Hwy 16 (Glenwood Rd S.W.) towards Wauna. We then followed down the east side of Hood Canal and into Shelton, on to 101 into Olympia and home. Another great ride put together by the Urban Master and most of it was dry.
